Contents

Preface xi

Part I  Contours and Concerns

1. What Is Interreligious Studies? Considerations from the “Between” 3
   Lucinda Mosher
2. The Interreligious Studies Agenda: Three Dilemmas 15
   Brian K. Pennington
3. Interreligious Studies and Comparative Theology: Distinctions and Tensions between Two Young Fields 24
   Pim Valkenberg
4. Sparring with Spider Silk: Models for the Relationship between Interreligious Studies and the Interfaith Movement 32
   Hans Gustafson
5. Bridging, Crossing, Transgressing: Interreligious Studies and Interfaith Engagement in the Catholic University 41
   Kerry P. C. San Chirico and Julia Sheetz
6. Committed Engagement: Pursuing Interreligious Studies from a Position of Faith 52
   Jeffery D. Long

Part II  Interdisciplinarity

   Devaka Premawardhana
   Alan Brill
9. Bibliographical History as Interreligious Studies Methodology: A Project Report 81
   David Thomas
    Aaron Rosen
11 Interreligious Studies and Law: Decolonizing Freedom of Religion and Belief 99
Paul Hedges and Yue Liu

12 The Interreligious Studies Approach to Science: Replacing Debate with Dialogue, Conflict with Cooperation 108
Hossein Kamaly

13 Toward Enriched Ways of Knowing: The Multiple Roles of Aesthetics in Interreligious Encounters 117
William Dyrness and Alexander E. Massad

14 Commonality and Difference: Jain Philosophical Approaches to Interreligious Studies 128
Anil Mundra

15 The Arts as Arena for—and Approach to—Interreligious Studies: Reflections on Dialogical Methodology 137
Ruth Illman

Part III Intersectionality

16 For Whom, and to What End? Possibilities and Implications of Privileging Intersectionality in Interreligious Studies 147
Tracy Sayuki Tiemeier

17 An Ecological Approach to Interreligious Studies: Seeing Religious Difference As Emerging in Place 157
Kevin Minister

18 Interreligious Studies and Gender: Critical Intersectional Feminist Perspectives 168
Anne Hege Grung

19 Confronting White Supremacy: Critical Pedagogies for Interreligious Engagement 176
Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook

20 Anti-Jewish Bigotry’s Causes, Symptoms, and Treatments: Recommendations for Interreligious Studies 186
Amy-Jill Levine

21 Toward a Praxis of Reconciliation: Catholic Theology, Interreligious Studies, and Anti-Muslim Bigotry 197
Axel Marc Oaks Takacs
Part IV  Prioritizing the Margins

22  Weaving Interreligious Pedagogies: Indigenous and Afro-Atlantic Religious Traditions and the Visual Arts  213
Yohana Agra Junker

23  Interreligious Studies, Humanism, and Secularity: A Norwegian Case Study  222
Oddbjørn Leirvik

24  Interesting, Varied, and Messy Lives: A People's History of Christian-Muslim Relations  232
David D. Grafton

25  “Drawing the Soul Towards Truth”: On Exploring Hindu and Muslim Sacred Geometry Dialogically  243
Rachelle Elizabeth

26  Diversity, Decolonization, and Autochthonous Voices: Hinduism’s Dilemma for Interreligious Studies  255
Vrajvihari V. Sharan

27  Considering Agonistic Pluralism as a Civic Norm: Implications for Interreligious Studies  266
Brendan Randall with Whittney Barth

Part V  Interreligious Dialogical Close Reading

28  Teaching and Learning Interreligiously in a Time of Change: Beginning (but Not Ending) with Primary Texts  281
Francis X. Clooney, SJ

29  Reading Scripture “As-If”: Promoting Interreligious Understanding via Contextualized Perspective-Taking  291
Monica Sanford

30  Ideal and Reality: An Interreligious Reading of the Gospel of John and the Mengzi  302
Bin Song

31  Jewish Mystical Resources for Interreligious Engagement: A Practitioner's Reflection  308
Or N. Rose

32  Turning to Aesthetics: The Guru Granth Sahib and Interreligious Studies  317
Nikky-Guninder K. Singh
33  Spiritual Humanism Meets Cosmotheandric Vision: Tu Weiming, Raimon
Pannikar, and Interreligious Studies  326
    Young-chan Ro

34  The Building Bridges Seminar: Interrogating the Category of Interreligious
Studies  335
    Daniel A. Madigan, SJ

Part VI  Interreligious Educational Design

35  Three Approaches to Teaching Religious Diversity: Toward Critical
    Interreligious/Interfaith Pedagogy  347
    Marianne Moyaert

36  Mentored Undergraduate Research: A Signature Pedagogy for Interreligious
    Studies  358
    Amy L. Allocco and Brian K. Pennington

37  Kenya’s “Triple Heritage” Context: Implications for Interreligious
    Studies  370
    Esther Mombo and Florence Iminza

38  Teaching Things: Critical Objects and Creative Students in the Interreligious
    Studies Classroom  379
    S. Brent Plate

39  (Inter)Religious Ritual Participation in a Classroom Setting: Insights from Comparative Theology  387
    Hans A. Harmakaputra

40  Simulation-Based Pedagogy for Interreligious Literacy: Critical Thinking
    Exercises for Teens and Young Adults  396
    Celene Marie Ibrahim

41  Toward Leadership, Listening, and Literacy: Making the “Case” for Interreligious Studies  408
    Elinor J. Pierce

42  Spiritual Psychotherapy Practice Class: Making the Shift from Ecumenical to Interreligious  419
    Pamela Couture

43  Contemplative Caregiving and a DeathFest: An Interdisciplinary,
    Interreligious Experiment  430
    Wakoh Shannon Hickey and Hannah Murphy Buc

44  Training for Leadership in Multifaith Contexts: Conflict Transformation  441
    Rachel S. Mikva
45 Chaplain Formation and Interreligious Studies: A Muslim Chaplaincy Educator’s Perspective on the Interconnection 451
Bilal W. Ansari

46 On Learning to Build an Organization: Interreligious/Interfaith Studies and Civic Renewal 459
Eboo Patel

Part VII Trajectories

47 Foundational Contributions and Next Steps: The Development of Interreligious/Interfaith Studies 471
Jennifer Howe Peace

48 Critical Interreligious Interdisciplinary Theological Reflection: Methodological and Hermeneutical Considerations for Interreligious Studies 482
Rita D. Sherma

49 Integrating Speaking About with Speaking With: Toward a Comparative Theology of Religious Diversity 494
John J. Thatamanil

50 A Contrapuntal Discipline: Through the Landscape of “Inter—” and “Religious” 503
Timur R. Yuskaev

Abbreviations 513
About the Editor 515
About the Contributors 517
Chapters by Author Surname 523
Index 529